Part III. Narrative

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Form 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

As a result of regular examinations of certain of its subsidiary banks by state and federal banking regulators in 2003, the registrant engaged in an extensive review of the adequacy of its allowance for loan losses, certain credit quality issues, and related matters. This review resulted in a substantial delay in the completion of the audit of the financial statements and the filing of the registrant's Form 10-K for the periods ended December 31, 2003, 2004, and 2005. The Form 10-K for the period ended December 31, 2004 was filed on December 8, 2006. The audit of the financial statements and filing of the Form 10-K for the periods ended December 31, 2005 and 2006 have not yet been completed. Accordingly, the registrant is unable to file its Form 10-Q for the period ended March 31, 2007 until it completes the audit on its financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2005 and 2006 and files all reports which are due and have not yet been filed with the Commission.

Part IV. Other Information

(1) Name and telephone number of person to contact in regard to this notification.

Steven T. Klitzing	(262)	695-6010
(Name)	(Area Code)	(Telephone Number)

(2) Have all other periodic reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 30 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed? If the answer is no, identify report(s).

Yes  No

As of the date hereof, the registrant has not filed its quarterly report for the quarters ended September 30, 2003, March 31, 2005, June 30, 2005 and September 30, 2005, its annual report for its fiscal year ended December 31, 2005, and its quarterly report for the quarters ended March 31, 2006, June 30, 2006, and September 30, 2006 and its annual report for its fiscal year ended December 31, 2006. Forms 12b-25 with respect to such reports were filed on November 14, 2003 (subsequently amended on November 17, 2003) May 11, 2005, August 10, 2005, November 9, 2005, March 31, 2006, July 5, 2006, August 14, 2006, November 14, 2006, and April 3, 2007, respectively.

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

Yes  No

If so: attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

The registrant has not yet filed its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the corresponding period in 2006. Accordingly, the registrant cannot make a reasonable estimate of the change in results of operations at this time as the results of operations for both of these periods are still under review. The registrant expects a significant decrease in interest income on securities, salaries and benefits, and other non-interest expenses and an increase in interest income on loans, interest expense on deposits, provision for loan losses and other non-interest income, primarily due to gains on sale of branches. The registrant expects to have a net loss for quarter ended March 31, 2007.
