Part III. Narrative

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Form 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

As a result of regular examinations of certain of its subsidiary banks by state and federal banking regulators in 2003, the registrant engaged in an extensive review of the adequacy of its allowance for loan losses, certain credit quality issues, and related matters. This review resulted in a substantial delay in the completion of the audit of the financial statements and the filing of the registrant's Form 10-K for the periods ended December 31, 2003, 2004, and 2005. The Form 10-K for the period ended December 31, 2003 was filed on October 31, 2005. The audits of the financial statements and filing of the Form 10-K for the periods ended December 31, 2004 and 2005 have not yet been completed. Accordingly, the registrant is unable to file until it completes the audit of its financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2005, and files all reports which are due and have not yet been filed with the Commission.

Part IV. Other Information

(1) Name and telephone number of person to contact in regard to this notification.

(2) Have all other periodic reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 30 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed? If the answer is no, identify report(s).

Yes No

As of the date hereof, the registrant has not filed its quarterly report for the quarters ended September 30, 2003, March 31, 2004, June 30, 2004 and September 30, 2004, its annual report for its fiscal year ended December 31, 2004, its quarterly report for the quarters ended March 31, 2005, June 30, 2005, and September 30, 2005, its annual report for its fiscal year ended December 31, 2005, and its quarterly report for the quarter ended March 31, 2006. Forms 12b-25 with respect to such reports were filed on November 14, 2003 (and subsequently amended on November 17, 2003), May 10, 2004, August 9, 2004, November 9, 2004, March 16, 2005, May 10, 2005, August 10, 2005, November 9, 2005, March 31, 2006, and July 5, 2006, respectively.

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

Yes No

If so: attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

The registrant has not yet filed its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the corresponding period in 2005. Accordingly, the registrant cannot make a reasonable estimate of the change in results of operations at this time as the results of operations for both of these periods are still under review. The registrant anticipates that there will be a significant decrease in cash and due from banks, fed funds sold, securities, loans, assets of companies held for sale, total assets, deposits and stockholders' equity, and an increase in short-term borrowings as a result of the registrant's liquidity and asset management strategies. The registrant also expects a significant decrease in net interest income, salaries and benefits expense, equipment and occupancy expense, and FDIC insurance premiums, and an increase in gain on sale of assets (as a result of the sale of two branch facilities) and professional services expense.
